

One day off- campus training cum exposure visit of farmers was conducted to farmers first programme (FFP) site Kasdol under TSP scheme 2022-23 on 17.11.2022

One day off- campus training cum exposure visit of farmers was conducted to the farmers first programme (FFP) site Kasdol under TSP scheme 2022-23 on 17.11.2022. The farmers from the village Kewatara and Bharwadih visited the different place of FFP sites developed under the Institute FFP by Dr. P. Mooventhan, PI (FFP). A total of about 80 farmers from different TSP villages and farmers of FFP sites were attended the programme and interacted with the farmers successfully adopted different interventions. Drs. Vinay Kumar, Sridhar J., staff engaged under FFP programme and beneficiary farmers visited to the different sites which includes Kadaknath farming cum Hatchery unit, Kharri, Vegetable field, Kharri, Polyhouse and Poultry shed, Kharaha, Agro-processing Centre (APC), Bamhani, Goat Farming Unit and FCC, Bakla. During the site visit farmers discussed with the progressive farmers related to the input cost of different interventions, material and infrastructure required including the net-profit etc.

In addition, farmers visited to the communication centre and seen all the facilities available for custom hiring purpose followed by Farmers-scientist interaction meeting was organized in which Dr. Vinay Kumar and Dr. Sridhar J. addressed the quires raised by the farmers and highlighted the importance of exposure visit and govt. schemes for improving livelihood of farmers. The programme was organized under the guidance of Dr, P.K.Ghosh, Director and Vice Chancellor, ICAR-NIBSM and coordinated by Dr. Vinay Kumar, Coordinator, Training SCSP and TSP scheme.

Kadakhath farming cum Hatchery unit, Kharri

Visit to vegetable field, Kharri

Polyhouse and Poultry shed, Kharaha

Agro-processing centre (APC), Bamhani

Visit to farmer's communication centre and farmers- scientist Interaction

Goat Farming Unit and FCC, Bakla